The history of the

Archives- Museum

In 1982 the Tatamy Historical Society was formed by William Carling, Joanne Wagner and Nancy Werkheiser. The Archives opened in June of 1993 to commemorate Tatamy's Centennial. Much of Tatamy's history is preserved in the form of pictures, newspapers, scrapbooks, clothing, furnishings and other memorabilia.

A one of a kind Tatamy Centennial Quilt is among the many displays. Other areas of interest include the following exhibits- Military, Tatamy Athletic Association, Tatamy Fire Company and Tatamy School, just to name a few.

All are invited to come explore the history of Tatamy.

Admission is free.

Contributions are always welcome.

General membership meetings are held twice a year.

Featured speakers or topics are a part of most meetings.

Occasional field trips are taken to points of interest.

The Annual business meeting is held in the fall.

Everyone is eligible to join the Tatamy Historical Society.
